

PREFERS STUDY OF ART TO MAKING DEBUT THIS FALL

With Reconsideration of Plans for Formal Introduction, Miss Edith Wharton Dallas Will Probably Continue to Study and Just "Slip Out"

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM WEST FRAZIER, JR., and their family, and Mrs. Frazier's niece, Miss Edith Wharton Dallas, Jr., who have been spending the summer in Northeast Harbor, will return to Teckoning, their suburban place at Ocoons, on Saturday, Miss Dallas, whose coming-out tea was originally arranged for October 18, is reconsidering her plans for a debutants' function, and may decide to continue her art studies instead, although she will attend debutante entertainments.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edward Kennedy will introduce their daughter, Miss Emily Pacey Kennedy, at a tea to be given at their town house, 2400 Walnut street, on the afternoon of Friday, November 13, the afternoon of which she will be 17 years of age. Mrs. Kennedy and her daughters, Miss Arnes Kennedy and Miss Emily Kennedy, returned this week from York Harbor and are occupying their home at Antrim, where they will remain until the first of November.

Mrs. Lewis Brinton and her debutante daughter, Miss Elizabeth F. Brinton, of 181 Spruce street, who have been traveling through Washington, Oregon and other points west, and attending both exhibitions, are at present located at Palmetto Beach, California, where they will remain for a few days about the 1st of September, when Miss Brinton will be presented to society at a large affair.

Mrs. Francis X. Dercum and her daughter, Miss Mary De Haven Dercum, who have been motoring through New England, will be in the city about the 1st of October, where they will spend several days. They will return to their home about the 1st of October.

Miss Natalie Sellers Barnes, of Bryn Mawr, has come to Panama, where she will be the guest of friends until the latter part of October. Miss Barnes' marriage to Mr. Elery Farmer, of Panama, will be solemnized late in the autumn.

Dr. and Mrs. Norton Downs, their daughter, Miss Elizabeth W. Downs, and their sons, Thomas McKean Downs and Norton Downs, Jr., who are camping in the Maine woods, will return to Fordhook House, their residence at Three Bays, on Friday, September 15. Miss Downs will be presented to society at a large tea given by her parents on October 1. With her cousin, Miss Eleanor Pepper, Miss Downs will be probably taking a large affair at the latter date.

Mr. Louis F. Fallon returned last week from Labrador, where he spent the summer at the Grenfell Mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Clinton will return to the city about September 10.

Mr. Robert Coane and his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Coane, who have been motoring to California, will return about October 1 to their apartments at the Rittenhouse.

Mrs. James W. Goodman has returned after a visit to the Panama Exposition at San Francisco.

Mrs. J. B. Lennis and Miss Elsa de B. Lennis will close their summer home at East Harbor, Me., and return to their apartments at the Rittenhouse about September 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Diston and Miss Dorothy Diston, of West Chestnut avenue, will return from Northeast Harbor, Me., Friday, September 11.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Henry, of Moreland and Cherokee avenues, will return next week from York Harbor, Me., where they have been since June 14.

Mrs. Hodgman, wife of Lieutenant William B. Hodgman, U. S. N., who, with her young son, has been spending the summer in the North, will leave this city about September 20 for Atlanta, Ga., where Lieutenant Hodgman is stationed.

Along the Main Line

OVERBROOK—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Shaw and Miss Lucy Shaw, who are occupying their cottage at Chelsea, will return to their home on Drexel road late this month. Mrs. John P. Dalton and her infant son, Shaw Dalton, have returned this summer with them. In the absence of Lieutenant Dalton, Mrs. Dalton will be remembered as Miss Edythe Shaw prior to her marriage in June of last year.

Lieutenant W. F. Cochrane, U. S. N., and Mrs. Cochrane, formerly of the Drexel road, are at present in Annapolis, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gest, of 64th and Drexel road, are remaining at their cottage in Ventnor through September.

WYNNEWOOD—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barto Brantner will close their Cape May cottage the middle of this month and return to Fraclybra.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Foster and their son, Willard H. Foster, Jr., who spent the early summer at Atlantic City, N. J., have returned home after a month's visit with Mr. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney A. Foster, at their home, in De Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Huddleston and family, of 217 Kent road, have returned from a six weeks' visit at Bay Head, N. J., and Stamford, Conn.

ARDMORE—Mrs. Stacy B. Lloyd, who, with Mr. Lloyd and family, spent the summer at their cottage in Watch Hill, R. I., has returned home after spending August in Canada. Mr. Lloyd, who is on a hunting trip, will remain in Canada until the middle of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Ludlow have closed their cottage at Beach Haven and spent their home on Linfair road.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Archfield and family, of 106 Clifford avenue, are spending several weeks at Wildwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Crowley and their son, Richard Crowley, of 307 Clifford avenue, have returned from a two weeks' stay at Wildwood.

James McCrea, Jr., of Woodmere, N. Y., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. James McCrea, of Ballyheather, at her cottage at Hot Springs, Va.

Mrs. Louis Sample Clarke, who is being her mother at Evansburg, will return to her home on Gulf road tomorrow.

HAVERFORD—Mr. and Mrs. B. Valli, of Berkeley avenue, have closed their cottage at Ventnor and opened their home here.

BRYN MAWR—Mrs. William Bernard, of Morris avenue, is entertaining Miss H. Bell, of Bayside, L. I. Miss Bell has just returned from Deaver, Colorado, where she has been visiting her brother, Mr. Edgar Bell, for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Wallace and family, of 644 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, who have been spending the summer at 217 Roberts road, returned home about the 1st of September.

Robert S. Strauch and family, of 106 Clifford avenue, returned home about the 1st of September.

ROSEMONT—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson have been spending several days with Mr. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Aigien.

Mrs. E. Waring Wilson, of Garrett road, has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. M. Steele, of Midway, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Denison and family have returned to their home on Montgomery avenue from Portland, Me.

RADNOR—Miss Elizabeth B. Montgomery has returned to Lathaw, her home in Radnor, from a fortnight's visit to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent P. Wood at their Chelsea cottage.

Mrs. Horace Binney Hare, who has been spending some time at Bar Harbor, has returned to Hartford, her Radnor home.

ST. DAVID'S—Mr. and Mrs. Rollin H. Wilbur, of Old Stone House, are spending the month of September at Alexandria Bay, Thousand Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hulme have returned after spending the summer at Cape May, N. J.

WAYNE—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Turner, Mr. Warren Turner and Miss H. Valma Turner have returned from a month's stay in Maine.

Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Ward, who have been spending a few days at Allentown, have returned to their home on Louella avenue, where they have made extensive alterations during the summer.

Mrs. Nadine C. Frew and her daughter have returned from Beach Haven, N. J.

Chestnut Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell, of 246 Evergreen avenue, have closed their cottage at Buck Hill Falls, Pa., and have returned to town.

Mrs. H. M. Daniel and Miss Helen Blair Daniel, of 31 East Springfield avenue, will return on Saturday from Newport, where they have been the guests of Commodore and Mrs. J. P. Parker at their cottage.

Mr. Paul Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Findlay Brown, of Summit avenue, has returned to Carnegie School of Technology.

Miss Marion Naylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Naylor, of 301 West Chestnut avenue, has returned from the Virginia Hot Springs.

Mrs. Hamilton Dismont, of 315 Rex avenue, has gone to Beach Haven, where she will remain until October 1.

Germantown

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kornfeld, of 100 South Boulevard, Cleveland, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Stella Kornfeld, to Dr. Harry F. Weber, 4015 Wayne avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Rainear, of Lincoln Drive, will leave tomorrow morning for a tour through Maine and New Hampshire.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gormley and Miss Helen Gormley, of 77 Lincoln Drive, are spending several weeks at Wernersville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Lloyd, of 231 Harvey street, have returned from Wernersville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. McLean, of Indian Queen lane, will return today from their camp in Maine, which they occupied during July and August.

Miss Josephine Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Butler Reeves, Jr., of Abbottsford avenue, has returned to Buck Hill Falls after having spent a week in Beach Haven.

Mr. Allen Smith, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. MacCuen Smith, of West Chelton avenue, is visiting friends at Buck Hill Falls, Pa.

Bala-Cynwyd

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Faunce have closed their cottage at Ocean City and opened their home on Bala avenue, Bala-Cynwyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Detwiler, of City avenue, Bala, have returned from several weeks' visit in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Dalton and family, who spent August at Wildwood, N. J., have opened their home on Union avenue, Bala.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Fleck and Miss Dorothy Fleck, of Bala avenue, Bala, have returned from a motor trip to Ocean City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis Morse, of State road, Cynwyd, will return home September 27 from Vermont, where they spent the summer on their farm.

Miss Minnie Scholler, of Cynwyd, who has been visiting friends at Ridley Park, has returned to her home.

Girard Farms

Mrs. Walter Boardman Decker, wife of Lieutenant Decker, U. S. N., and her little daughter, Stella Elizabeth, who have spent the summer months in Montclair, N. J., as the guests of Lieutenant Decker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Decker, Jr., has reopened her home at 2333 South 21st street.

Lieutenant Decker is at present present at Bryn, on the United States scout cruiser Chester, which is at present looking after American citizens and American interests in that country.

Captain Samuel R. Gleaves, U. S. A., and Mrs. Gleaves have reopened their home at 2331 South 21st street. Captain and Mrs. Gleaves, with their two little daughters, Miss Julia and Miss Anna, spent the summer months at Glengrove, Pike County, Pa.

Miss Anna Kenny and Miss Mary Kenny, of the Villa Apartments, return from a motor trip to Ridgewood, N. J.

South Philadelphia

The Fraternal League, the well-known literary organization of South Philadelphia, resumed its meetings September 5 at the College Settlement, 5th and Christian streets. Its meetings are held fortnightly. It aims to develop eloquent powers. Any young man interested in this work is cordially welcome. Address the secretary, Mr. Joseph H. Jennings, 524 Morris street.

Miss Sylvia Lichtenstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Lichtenstein, of 141 Fernbert street, go to Washington, D. C., on Sunday, when she will visit friends.

Northeast Philadelphia

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dugan, of Newark, N. J., will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fields, of 127 Clementia street, for the next month.

Mrs. Harry Neuman and family, who have been spending the summer at Wildwood, have returned to their home, 56 North 5th street.

A block party will be given by the Daughters of L. O. L. No. 14, on Dauphin street, below Coral and Jasper streets, today and Saturday.

MRS. RALPH EARLE STANTON Whose marriage took place last Tuesday. Mrs. Stanton was Miss Louise Helen Maurer. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Maurer, of Tioga.

West Philadelphia

Mrs. Charles Loring Elliot, of 422 Spruce street, will give a linen shower, followed by bridge, this afternoon, in honor of her sister, Miss Florence Jennetta Elliot, daughter of Mr. Frank Spangler Elliot, whose marriage to Mr. Waldo O. Febling will take place on September 24. The guests will include Mrs. Frank O'Reilly, Mrs. Frank Spangler Elliot, Miss Edna Miller, Mrs. Henry Freund, Miss Grace Reed, Miss Romaine Taylor, Miss Dorothy Mortimore, Miss Marjorie Morris, Miss Kathryn Mortimore, Miss Anne McKnight, Mrs. Warren Moss, Miss Helen Roberts, Miss Leonide Dagit, Mrs. Harold McAneny, Mrs. Theodore Kames, Mrs. William Jennings, Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. Jesse Ellis, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Helen Nelson, Mrs. Harold Bottomley, Miss Gladys Truscott, Mrs. Earl Stewart, Mrs. Charles Dickinson, Mrs. William Hallinger, Mrs. Lawson Baily, Miss Helen Vason, Mrs. Leoman Brown, Miss Florence Reid, Miss Helen Dunn, Mrs. Alfred Wiler, Mrs. Richard Fishburn and Miss May Fitzgerald.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bennett and their daughters, who spent the summer in Chelsea, have returned to their home, 5320 Catharine street.

The Rev. Dr. George S. Bell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Annapolis, and Mrs. Bell are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Allen R. Bartholomew, of 427 Walnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stoneback and their children, of 493 Walnut street, have returned home after having spent the summer at Ventnor, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Maher and their family, of 6915 Vine street, have returned from a stay of several weeks at Wildwood, N. J.

Miss Mary Ker Christian, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Addison Christian, will leave tomorrow for Allentown, where she will be the guest of Miss Dorothy Rube, and act as maid of honor at Miss Rube's marriage to Mr. Albert Chamberlin on Saturday. Miss Christian has recently returned from Riverbank, the summer home of her parents, at Greensboro, Md.

Mrs. R. F. Souder and Miss Elise Souder, of 445 Sanson street, have returned from a short stay at Bay Head, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Oppenheimer, of 3013 North Broad street, will remain in Atlantic City through the early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maxwell, of 1814 North 16th street, entertained the Atlantic City Beach Combers. There were about 25 couples present, and the decorations were red, white, blue and gold. Among those present were Miss Winifred Milner, Miss Kitty Simpson, Miss Helen Brady, Miss Eleanor Rush, Miss Florence McQuade, Miss Ethel McQuade, Miss Gertrude Smith, Miss Gene Connors, Miss Helen Weigand, Miss Carrie O'Neill, Miss Margaret Hill, Miss Gene Thompson, Miss Nan Bell, Miss Mildred Mella, Miss Gertrude Mella, Miss Belle Breston, Miss Ethel Walter, Miss Rose Kelly, Miss Elsie Matt, Miss Isabel Melvin, Miss Richard J. Larmer, Mr. Francis J. Griffin, Mr. William Miller, Mr. Daniel Rush, Mr. John Rush, Mr. Joseph McCann, Mr. Frederick G. Tecklinberg, Mr. George Liddle, Mr. Albert Maxwell, Mr. Phillip McCabe, Mr. Isaac Rosenthal, Mr. Abraham Sassafras, Mr. Louis Edelman, Mr. John Howard, Mr. Robert Ernest, Mr. Joseph H. Brown, Mr. John Kernan, Mr. Harry Clark, Mr. Charles Pursley and Mr. Charles Thomas.

Mr. Edward M. Moll, who has been spending the summer in Atlantic City, will return to her home, 2444 North Broad street, next week.

Along the Reading

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Kraus, of Abington, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Ruth Adele Kraus, to Dr. John C. Simpson, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald B. Hubbard and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Larzelere, of Jenkintown, will leave Sunday for a trip to the Pacific coast, stopping at the Grand Canyon of Arizona, Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Francisco, where they will spend several days. They will come home by way of Seattle and Vancouver and the Canadian Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Dutton, of Washington lane, Jenkintown, have as their guest Miss Ruth Grossmith, of Chicago, Ill., for an extended visit. Many entertainments are being given in Miss Grossmith's honor during her visit, among them a dinner last Friday evening and a tea, given by Mr. and Mrs. Dutton at the Old York Road Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Dutton and Miss Grossmith will leave this week for Atlantic City, N. J. They have taken an apartment for the remainder of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mullin, of Oak Lane, are entertaining Mr. Mullin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Mullin, of Stamford, Del., during this month. Miss Helen Mullin will be the guest of Miss Virginia Wade for two weeks at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Wade will occupy their home at Noble after September 28 for the fall season.

Miss June Harmer, of Oak Lane, returned Tuesday from a short visit in Wilmington, where she was the guest of Mrs. Evelyn Clavey, of 415 Concomer avenue. Miss Harmer is at present the guest of Mrs. J. Hughes, at her residence, 132 St. James place, Atlantic City, and will remain until September 18.

Tioga

Miss May G. Gilmore, of 2960 North 6th street, is spending the early part of September in Boston.

Miss Ethyl Sands and Miss Edith Sands, of 3723 North 19th street, have opened their home at Atlantic City, after having spent the summer cruising along the New England coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Linford Carman, formerly of 1206 West Allegheny avenue, are occupying their new home on Cadwalloer road, Elkins Park.

North Philadelphia

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maxwell, of 1814 North 16th street, entertained the Atlantic City Beach Combers. There were about 25 couples present, and the decorations were red, white, blue and gold. Among those present were Miss Winifred Milner, Miss Kitty Simpson, Miss Helen Brady, Miss Eleanor Rush, Miss Florence McQuade, Miss Ethel McQuade, Miss Gertrude Smith, Miss Gene Connors, Miss Helen Weigand, Miss Carrie O'Neill, Miss Margaret Hill, Miss Gene Thompson, Miss Nan Bell, Miss Mildred Mella, Miss Gertrude Mella, Miss Belle Breston, Miss Ethel Walter, Miss Rose Kelly, Miss Elsie Matt, Miss Isabel Melvin, Miss Richard J. Larmer, Mr. Francis J. Griffin, Mr. William Miller, Mr. Daniel Rush, Mr. John Rush, Mr. Joseph McCann, Mr. Frederick G. Tecklinberg, Mr. George Liddle, Mr. Albert Maxwell, Mr. Phillip McCabe, Mr. Isaac Rosenthal, Mr. Abraham Sassafras, Mr. Louis Edelman, Mr. John Howard, Mr. Robert Ernest, Mr. Joseph H. Brown, Mr. John Kernan, Mr. Harry Clark, Mr. Charles Pursley and Mr. Charles Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Young, of 183 Sumac street, Wissahickon, have returned from City Point, Va., where they were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hultman. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Margaret Young, and Mrs. Margaret Young has gone to Williamsport for part of September.

Mrs. J. Thompson Littlewood, of Rochelle avenue, Wissahickon, and her sister, Mrs. William McConnell, have returned from a tour of the Thousand Islands.

Lansdowne

A junior tennis tournament will be held this week at the courts on the playgrounds at Griffith Park. Nine silver cups have been given for awards. Prof. Eugene Baker, Mr. Henry S. Barker and Prof. Carl Altman, form the committee in charge.

Miss Anna Kenny and Miss Mary Kenny, of the Villa Apartments, return from a motor trip to Ridgewood, N. J.

WEDDINGS OF IMPORTANCE OCCUPY SOCIETY FOLK

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stearne Announce the Marriage of Their Daughter, Miss Marion Stearne, to Mr. Ross W. Marriott—Other Weddings

MR. AND MRS. EDWIN STEARNE have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marion Redfield Stearne, to Mr. Ross W. Marriott, of Swarthmore, on Wednesday, September 8, at their home, 4623 Mulberry street, Frankford, at 4 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. John Wesley Stockwell, in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Marriott, who are on their honeymoon, will live at Swarthmore upon their return, after October 15.

BRUCE-O'NEILL The marriage of Miss Mary O'Neill, daughter of Mrs. William James O'Neill, and Dr. Wallace Wendell Bryce, of Troy, N. Y., took place on Tuesday evening at 7:30 in their own home, 1657 North 60th street, the Rev. Henry G. Martin, of Pocomoke City, Md., officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Ruth Jackson, of Columbus, N. J., as maid of honor; Miss E. Lois Bryce, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and little Miss Anne Ruth Baird, of Baltimore, as flower girl. Doctor Bryce was attended by his brother, Mr. Lowell Hardon Bryce, as best man. Miss O'Neill wore a lovely gown of white net and lace over white satin. Her veil was of tulle held in place by orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were gowned alike in simple gowns of white and carried arm bouquets of roses.

GILDEA-NOLAN The marriage of Miss Helen Nolan, of 214 Montrose street, to Mr. Thomas J. Gildea, 2050 St. Albans street, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church, 34th and Fitzwater streets, Father Gaffney officiating. The bridesmaid was Miss Marie Cunningham, and the best man Mr. Edward Arrison. Upon their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Gildea will receive their many friends in their new home.

SHEEHAN-RYDER

A wedding of much interest to South Philadelphians took place in Jersey City, N. J., on Wednesday afternoon at 5:30, in the church of St. Aloysius, when Miss Mary Margaret Ryder, daughter of Mrs. Julia Ryder, of 19 Clean avenue, became the bride of Mr. Daniel Joseph Sheehan, of 3014 South 13th street, this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Hall, rector, and there were also present from this city, the Rev. James Higgins, of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, the Rev. James Smith, of the Assumption, and the Rev. Father Corley, of the Epiphany. The bride, who was attended by her sister, Miss Anne Ryder, wore a gown of white duchesse satin, made en train, and trimmed with duchesse lace. Her long tulle veil reached to the end of the train, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a soft gown of blue pussy willow taffeta, a black velvet picture hat, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of Killarney roses. Mr. Neal MacNamara, of this city, and the ushers were Mr. C. Walter Heimbold, Mr. Joseph Leo McElroy, Mr. Thomas Thornton, and Mr. John Orr. A reception followed at the home of the bride, after which the couple left for a trip through the Adirondacks and Lake George. They will be at home after October 1, at 528 Archway street, West Philadelphia. Both young people are well known in this city. Miss Ryder having taken part in private theatricals here, and Mr. Sheehan, who is a graduate of the R. C. High School, is FRANKFORD Miss Elsie Smith and Miss Alice Smith, of Bloxom, Va., who have been the guests of Miss Rose Fulton, of Harrison street, during the summer, will return this week. A great deal of entertaining has been done for the young ladies during their visit, and they have become very well known in the northeast section.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mundy, of Torrence avenue, will entertain at dinner Saturday evening in honor of their niece, Miss Edythe Clark, whose engagement to John R. Curtis, of Frankford avenue, was announced last month. Covers will be laid for 12 guests, and there will be music and dancing until 12 o'clock.

Suffrage Events Today

EQUAL FRANCHISE SOCIETY Noon—Meeting at Textile Machine Company, Hancock and Somerset streets; speaker, Miss Anna McEue.

8:30 p. m.—Meeting at American street and Fairmount avenue; speaker, Miss Bertha Sappitt.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE PARTY 8:15 p. m.—Meeting at Manayunk and Ridge streets; speaker, Miss Estelle Huest.

What's Doing Tonight

Legion Home Week celebration. Carnival, St. Paul's Association, Broad and Venango streets.

Carnival Methodist Hospital.

Schools and Colleges

FRIENDS' CENTRAL SCHOOL has a strong Faculty of able College Graduates. Heads of Departments have taken honors at their Alma Mater, and were selected for their Ability and Efficiency in their respective fields of work.

BANKS' BUSINESS COLLEGE Night School will help you increase your earning capacity—attend it and your pay envelope will soon hold more than last week's expense.

STANDY Y.M.C.A. COURSES Save carfare. Evening school, dormitory. Expert instructors. Individual Method. Swimming Pool, Gymnasium.

Attend Pierce School Night Sessions in Splendid New Building, Fine Street, West of Broad

LA SALLE COLLEGE BROAD ABOVE GIRARD AVE. Philadelphia, Pa. Conducted by the Christian Brothers. Exceptional courses in Engineering, Arts, Pre-medical and commercial subjects.

STRAYER'S BusinessCollege Is better than other schools because its teachers are experts. We do professional work in our line.

Wanmaker Institute 222 & WALNUT STS., OPENING SEPT. 20. Courses per term (30 wks.), $4.00.

Palmer Business School Short-hand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, English and night sessions. Send for catalog.

Germantown Friends School OPENS 8:40 A. M. STANLEY R. YARNALL, Principal

PHILADELPHIA TURNERMEINDE School now open for fall winter term. We teach gymnastics, German, drawing, needlework and swimming to children.

PERKIOEN SEMINARY The School that Laces Its Shoes Located in the beautiful Perkiomen Valley within easy reach from Philadelphia.

BROWN PREPARATORY BROAD AND CHESTNUT STREETS

MISS HILLS' SCHOOL 1808 Spruce Street, Opens Sept. 22. MAIN LINE BRANCH 27th and Locust, Opens September 27.

Advertisers of Other Schools and Colleges Appeared on This Page Yesterday and Will Appear Again Tomorrow

THE KIRSCHBAUM SCHOOL of Languages 1524 Chestnut St. (Wrightman Bldg.)

ST. LEONARD'S SCHOOL BY-THE-SEA Build up health, nerve confidence, while the mind is being educated.

COMBS CONSERVATORY 31st Year Opens Sept. 18th Enrollment Limited to 2500

Leefson-Hille CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC, 1202 Morris, Leefson, Pros., 1524 Chestnut St. Opens Sept. 20th.

ZECKWER'S Philadelphia Musical Academy 1817 Spruce St. 4th season opens Sept. 13th. Branch—4229 Walnut St. Ave. 446 B. 6th St. Eminent Artists in Faculty. Prospective.

EDW. VAN LEER, Tenor Solo Tenor Central Congregational, Brookline, Conservatory, Organ, Sing, Vocal, Voice Culture. FULLER BLDG., 16 & 17TH ST.

Wm. J. Boehm ORGAN, CONCERT, AND LARGO 1817 Spruce St.

F. J. Cosgrove PIANO-VOICE 27th and Locust, Opens Sept. 27.

EDMUNDS VOICE 1714 Chestnut Street, Radnor, Pa., Cynwyd.

Black & White Shop New Fall Hats for the 1915-16 Season are here—Ready for your inspection and selection. Mrs. Macgill, formerly of Blaylock & Blynn, now with I. W. MULREADY 125 S. 16th Street